

Hank Bernstein

I have been coming to RS since the early 1970s when I was a student at Penn. I have been a member of the RS Board for the last 10 years, and served as Assistant Treasurer, Treasurer, and presently as Vice President. Serve on the Finance Committee, Investment Committee, Audit Committee, and as board liaison with the Director of Membership & Philanthropy. Have served as co-chair on the Search Committee for Executive Director; on the Search Committee for Senior Rabbi; and on the Committee for the 90th Anniversary of the Sanctuary. During my career as a CPA, I worked in audit and management consulting in public accounting, as controller for a privately held corporation, and for a foundation that restructured into a public charity. I retired in December 2015 as Senior Vice President of Finance after 23 years with The Pew Charitable Trusts. Over the last 40 years I have served as a member of the board and Treasurer of nonprofit organizations including ActionAIDS, Inc., the Delaware Valley Legacy Fund, The Pew Research Center and the Stoneleigh Foundation. Jim Fennell, my husband/partner of 5 years/41 years (we had a long engagement), and I live in Fairmount, within walking distance of RS.
