

Broad Perspectives: A Philadelphia Jewish Speakers Series

A unique opportunity for: INSERT COMPANY LOGO HERE

"Broad Perspectives" is a new Philadelphia Jewish speakers series, in partnership with the Feinstein Center for American Jewish History at Temple University. For this programmatic year, we will host multiple conversations at RS with intellectuals, writers, experts, and activists, as well as cultural programs. With this series, our leg of Broad Street will be known for meaningful ideas and "Broad Perspectives" that inspire our spiritual life paths. We welcome these speakers to RS to share their wisdom and stories of their journeys:

Immersed in Jewish Time: An Evening with Michael Solomonov and Adeena Sussman Exploring the Foods of her Shabbat & Holiday Table

Saturday, September 9 at 8:00 p.m. (Patron reception at 7:00 p.m.)

History as Common Ground and Battlefield: Views from the Tenement Museum and the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum with Dr. Annie Polland, President, Tenement Museum and Daniel Greene, Subject Matter Expert and Curator, US Holocaust Memorial Museum

Thursday, November 2 at 7:00 p.m. (Patron reception at 6:00 p.m.)

White Supremacy and Antisemitism with Talia Lavin, Freelance Journalist and Author of *Culture Warlords: My Journey into the Dark Web of White Supremacy
